Piramal historical GCC business

Piramal Healthcare has successfully integrated Rhodia IA business to build a global presence:

- Acquired Rhodia's IA business in Jan 2005, the business had profitability of 22%
- Production migrated to India - halothane and isoflurane technologies absorbed
- Gained leadership position in Halothane and Isoflurane
- Profitability expanded significantly in FY2008

Piramal IA Facility at Digwal, India

Business Synergy

MINRAD
INC.

- Unique position worldwide with patented processes for Sevoflurane
- Unique manufacturing know-how for all four Inhalation Anaesthetic products
- Experienced team
- Worldwide Sevoflurane registrations driving opportunity for efficiencies

RxElite

- 8 years of near 100% service levels in US markets
- Excellence in Contracting, Service and Distribution
- Strong and experienced BD team

Strategic Intent

- Leverage the brand equity, market presence and channel relationships of the Inhalation Anesthetics business to expand profitably into the broader Critical Care business
- Exploring avenue to enhance supply chain efficiencies

- Production Ramp-up
- Yield Improvement
- Sourcing
 - o Leverage better prices of RM/PM through sourcing from India/China
- Installation of vaporizers and upgrading of Plant and Machinery to drive sales growth
- Leverage non-US Sales and Marketing network of existing business to grow sales of Sevoflurane

- Baxter sued Minrad in January 2009 on Desflurane bottle closure system
- Reed Smith , Attorneys appointed to defend the Para IV challenge
- As matter is sub-judice will not be in a position to share any information
- In view of this development, we will not launch Desflurane in FY2010
- Our strategy will be to maximize Sevoflurane and Isoflurane sales

In view of the above, the outlook on Minrad is revised:

Performance outlook: FY10

- Revenues : $ 55 - 60 million
- EBITDA : 20 – 22 %
- To be EPS accretive in first year
